

The NAB's attempt to stifle XM radio's programming is the worst example of politics as usual and is clearly NOT in the public's best interest. The FCC has no business in supporting this type of legislation.